Open Rank Extension Educator - Water and Integrated Cropping Systems in Lancaster County

Nebraska Extension has an excellent opportunity for a full-time faculty position located in Lincoln, NE in Lancaster County. This educator’s primary responsibility is to develop and deliver educational programs and resources as an active participant in the Nebraska Water and Integrated Cropping Systems (WICS) Team within a geographic area that includes Lancaster, Cass, and Otoe Counties in Nebraska. This educator is expected to collaborate closely with colleagues, state and federal agencies, industry representatives, and crop producers to deliver precision agriculture strategies related to agronomic and management issues in cover crop or forage management based on the goals and objectives of the Water and Integrated Cropping Systems Team.

Recognizing that diversity within a context of inclusivity enhances creativity, innovation, impact, and a sense of belonging, the Institute of Agriculture and Natural Resources (IANR) and Extension are committed to creating learning, research, Extension programming, and work environments that are inclusive of all forms of human diversity. We actively encourage applications from and nominations of individuals from underrepresented groups.
